

Nepris Partnership Announcements

Examples of Internal Communications for Increasing Nepris Usage

After launching Nepris, it can be helpful to encourage more employees to get involved by communicating successes, new opportunities, etc. Here are some text examples you can modify as needed.

1

Good Morning,

As many of you know, [Company] has partnered with Nepris to virtually connect our amazing employees with students everywhere for skills-based volunteering opportunities. In the last 6 months alone, we've seen some truly inspirational work from our employees. Below are some recent highlights:

- Employee 1, photo or image from session, job title, # engagements, student impact
- Employee 2, photo or image from session, job title, # engagements, student impact
- Employee 3, photo or image from session, job title, # engagements, student impact

Learn more about getting involved by clicking here to sign up, or contact [Company POC Name] with questions on getting started. Whether you're able to volunteer once a year or once a week, we encourage you to try out this exciting new way to volunteer and inspire the next generation of our workforce!

2

Dear Team,

We wanted to share a few great stories from employees who have begun virtually volunteering with classrooms locally and from around the country. Here is what they say about the experience:

- Employee 1, photo from session, job title, 2-3 sentence quote about experience.
- Employee 2, photo from session, job title, 2-3 sentence quote about experience.

Becoming a skills-based volunteer is easy, enables us to expand our company's educational outreach, and inspires students to consider [field] careers. Learn more about getting involved by clicking here to sign up, or contact [Company POC Name] with questions on getting started.

